

CLINICAL SOFTWARE INTEGRATION

KEY MESSAGES AND RESOURCES

Key messages

- The National Cancer Screening Register (NCSR) supports the National Bowel Cancer Screening Program and the National Cervical Screening Program by inviting and reminding eligible people to screen, as well as creating a safety net by prompting participants and their healthcare providers to take the next steps on their screening journey.
- To date, over 3,500 practices have integrated with the NCSR, ensuring seamless access to patient screening information, including alerts for patients who are overdue for screening or follow up, using the software they use daily.
- Research shows patients are more likely to participate in bowel and cervical screening after discussing it with a trusted health professional.
- Improved access to patient screening information is vital for facilitating meaningful conversations to highlight the life-saving potential of early detection and address any concerns about the screening process.
- The integration allows healthcare providers to access and submit comprehensive screening information for the bowel and cervical screening programs, directly from the practice management software they use daily.
- Integrating with the NCSR supports personalised healthcare, empowering providers to proactively manage and promote participation in Australia's bowel and cervical screening programs.
- By integrating your clinical software with the NCSR, you're not just improving practice efficiency — you're contributing to a nationwide effort to reduce deaths from bowel and cervical cancer.
