

SARC Presentation:

Student Leader Training: Reducing the Risk of Sexual Violence

SARC offers this interactive presentation to university student leaders involved in planning events. The presentation aims to equip students with a basic understanding of issues relating to sexual violence covering the skills to respond effectively to a disclosure.

Topics

- Definitions & statistics
- Consent and the law
- Impacts of sexual assault
- Responding to a disclosure of sexual assault
- Being an ethical bystander
- Considerations when planning an event
- Resources and referral options

At the conclusion of the SARC presentation, a university representative may like to add a brief presentation on specific campus safety measures, guidelines and procedures that are relevant to the university event planners and information on sexual harassment.
