Raising happiness

At Ngala, we believe every child deserves the opportunity to be their best, and that parenting should be a joyful and rewarding experience.

Every child has a different path to take in life and they will have to face challenges, seek out opportunities and triumph over hurdles, as they explore the world around them.

After 130 years of working with families across Western Australia, we continue to use the latest research and training, alongside community stories and experiences, to develop and deliver services that meet the needs of today's parents and children.

From conception to adulthood, Ngala will be there as a steadying hand on the journey you take with your child, every step of the way.

Our services and programs support communities across Western Australia and include:

- Private parenting consultations
- The Ngala Parenting Line:
Metro - 9368 9368 or
Country - 1800 111 546 (free for regional callers, only from a landline)
- Programs and workshops for parents, carers and children 0 - 18 years
- Early childhood education and care
- Day and extended stay hospital services
